Paper Heart

Overworld

Lost inside a maze
Dark and dreamy place
Can you tell me, oh can you tell me
what I'm doing hereLost inside of me
Where no eyes can see
Can you tell me, oh can you tell me
Why I don't belongFeelings can't be sold
Not for empty gold
And I do believe that life hides more than we can knowAll those memories
Beating in our hearts
Hold on to your mindFar away
Far away from here
I know we will meet again
Let it shine across the nightsky
Far away
Far away from here
This is my goodbye to this worldThe dark hides all my shame
It can't reach me
Safe inside my dreams
It's not real
And I cannot face it without you
Lost inside my dreams
All aloneScream it stronger now
I don't wanna run away
Let it shine across the nightsky
Scream it stronger now
This is my goodbye to this worldThe dark hides all my shame
It can't reach me
Safe inside my dreams
It's not real
And I cannot face it without you
Lost inside my dreams
