Down

Amel Larrieux

Down, where I'm going is, down
'Cause you dance me around
Made me too dizzy to seeDown, boy, did you let me down?
There's a permanent frown
Where my smile used to bePride has kept me from crawling
But sorrow is constantly calling
'Cause you are the man who's not falling for meDown, I'm the fool of the town
Someone send in the clowns
That song's about meCarelessly I let you saunter in
And out of the chambers of my heart
Disguised as a gentlemanHeartlessly and much to my chagrin
You quickened your step as you left
And that's where my soliloquy beginsDown, isn't it profound?
You're the wolf on the bound
I'm a helpless sheepCarelessly I let you saunter in
And out of the chambers of my heart
Disguised as a gentlemanHeartlessly and much to my chagrin
You quickened you step as you left
And that's where my soliloquy beginsDown, my heart makes not a sound
It's somewhere on the ground
Breaking beneath my feet
