My Time

Unbroken

I don't know why I place these virtues on myself, I just see that greed never cares for where we live, pass this onto others well after us, the few times that we care never seems quite enough, and I know that there is only one air that we breathe, eternal foundation or is that what we think we see,
I see a chance to put myself on this stand I see that I am not the only man to answer the cry of a bleeding earth, purify that is gone I hope soon will return, the only changes they know are the ones that cost the least, it's time to take it back it's up to you and me,
and I know that there is only one air that we breathe,
I see a chance to put myself on this stand, and I see that I am not the only man I can do more, I can do more, I can do more than sit back and let you destroy me
