

Repeating, Repeating

The Juliana Theory

I'm burning the candle at both ends
While holding it under water
I'm looking with tunnel vision and
I'm bleeding to make this all worthwhile I know it seems to never end
This way I've made it in Repeating, repeating
I'm burnt out, burnt out
On everything
Repeating over again
Burn out, burnt out on everything
Will this end? I want to be off this board I can't
I tell you that everything is all right
I'm looking for time to find myself
With all of this madness in my life I know it seems to never end
This way I've made it in Repeating, repeating
I'm burnt out, burnt out
On everything
Repeating over again
Burn out, burnt out on everything
Will this end? I'm burning the candle at both ends
I tell you that everything is all right
I'm burning the candle at both ends
I'm bleeding to make this all worthwhile I'm burning the candle, I'm burning the candle at both ends
I'm burning the candle, I'm burning the candle at both ends
Will it end?
Will this end?
Will this end?
Will this end? Repeating, repeating
I'm burnt out, burnt out
On everything
Repeating over again
Burn out, burnt out on everything
This will end
