

Bloodred Massacre

Fleshcrawl

I'm walking on the edge, might be falling
The virtual abyss, keeps on growing
Solid way of life, seems to get lost
The second me myself, forces unknown
Turn myself around, haunting shadows
Mirrors of my mind, strange to myself
Got no fuckin' clue, of whatsoever

Seems that I'll go through, my own massacre
Bloodred Massacre, bloodred massacre
Unsatisfied with the outturn of life

Twofaced I stay true to my game
Can't figure out what is left of my beliefs
As i watch all my dreams fade away
No indulgence for me
I'll go astray within my own world
What the fuck is going on with me ?
Infiltration of my sanity
