

Dancehall

The Loyd Family Players

There are ghosts in herean easy laze
They dance all night
With a vacant gaze
They stand in rows
And buy alcohol
We're having fun at the dancehall I've got my pills and I've got my toys spin-up girls and pin-up boys
My lips are frozen to another can
I could kill him, but I just kiss his hand
