If There's A God

The Proclaimers

If there's a God
Where does He go to
When disease and hunger
Knock on the door?
And if there's a God
How does He decide
That she'll be born rich
But he'll be born poor?
I don't know
Can you tell me? Oh
Can you tell me? Oh
If there's a God
Why does He let
People die slowly
Wracked by pain?
And if there's a God
Who blesses with children
Why does He steal
Some back again?

I don't know
Can you tell me? Oh
Can you tell me? Oh
If there's a God
Why is He letting
Violence and murder
Be done in His name?
But if there's no God
Why am I lying
Here in the dark
Saying his name?
I don't know
Can you tell me? Oh
Can you tell me? Oh
I don't know
Can you tell me? Oh
Can you tell me? Oh
