

Trust You

Brandon Heath

I can't walk without watching where I'm going...
I can't speak without knowing what to say...
I can't love and have any hesitation...
Cause' i know that you dont work that way...
I can't reach without something to offer...
I can't come now I am so ashamed...
I can't hold out from you any longer...
Cause' i know that you dont work that way...

Chorus-

I'm not gonna fight you anymore...
I'm not gonna try to lock the door...
You took your life and gave me yours...
There's no reason why...
I shouldnt trust you with mine...

It's never easy changing direction...
It's so unnatural to loosen up my grip...
Are you growing weary of all my good intentions...
Cause' i know that you dont work that way...

Chorus-

I'm not gonna fight you anymore...
I'm not gonna try to lock the door...
You took your life and gave me yours...
There's no reason why...
I shouldnt trust you with mine...

Somedays this weight upon my shoulders!
Is my shame i know i should know better!
Cause' you say that i must now surrender...
There's no other way...

I'm not gonna fight you anymore...
I'm not gonna fight you anymore...
I'm not gonna try to lock the door...
I needed life you gave me yours...
You took your life and gave me yours...
There's no good reason why...
I shouldnt trust you...

I'm not gonna fight you anymore...
I'm not gonna try to lock the door...
You took your life and gave me yours...
There's no reason why...
No good reason why...
I shouldnt trust you...
With mine!!!!
