Lucky One

Raul Malo

All in the love is fair, the same way everywhere
It simply has no rules
I never took the time or paid it any mind
It didn't matter who win or loseEver since I met you things have changed
Cloudy skies have brighter days
Even fate has turned my way
I know that I would be a fool not to bet it all on you
And let the chips fall where they mayAnd now I'm the lucky one, I'll always be the lucky one
As long as you are close to me
Like a gambling man who always holds a winning hand
Losing's just a thought I can't conceiveThe worlds a better place, one look at you is all it takes
And I surrender willingly
And now I'm the lucky one, I'll always be the lucky one
Since I have you close to meLovers take their vows, many times I've wondered how Say those words so easily
Did that happiness hide their loneliness
With the things I couldn't seeI may never understand what would make a man
Think he found the one he needs
But I don't question why, I just believe
That I found a love that's meant to beNow I'm the lucky one, I'll always be the lucky one
As long as you are close to me
Like a gambling man who always holds a winning hand
Losing's just a thought I can't conceiveThe world's a better place, one look at you is all it takes
And I surrender willingly
And now I'm the lucky one, I'll always be the lucky one
Since I have you close to meNow I'm the lucky one, I know that I'm the lucky one
(And now I'm the lucky one, I'll always be the lucky one)
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
(As long as you are close to me)
Like a gambling man who always holds a winning hand
Losing's just a thought I can't conceiveI'm the lucky one
(The world's a better place, one look at you is all it takes)
And I surrender willingly
(And I surrender willingly)(And now I'm the lucky one, I'll always be the lucky one)
(Since I have you close to me)
I'm the lucky one
(And now I'm the lucky one, I'll always be the lucky one)
(As long as you are close to me)
As long as you are close to me
