Oh No You Didn't

Chuck Loeb

Oh no you didn't walk out on me
Oh no you didn't take it so lightly
Oh no you didn't just shut the door
I think my jaw just hit the floor.I know we always seems to fuss and fight
But just give me a chance to make this right
We have this one more opportunity
I think that I can make you seeOh no you didn't walk out on me
Oh no you didn't take it so lightly
Oh no you didn't just shut the door
I think my jaw just hit the floor.Don't want to wrap my mind around fate
Lately all your love has been just an act
You said we failed more times than we can count
But this is by far the worst excuse you found(Yeah)
Oh no you didn't walk out on me (Nooo)
Oh no you didn't take it so lightly
Oh no you didn't just shut the door
I think my jaw just hit the floor.I hope your mama has space for you
In her living room
I hope your friends don't mind
Trying to find some extra quality time
I hope you still on speaking terms
With your brothers and sisters
Cause it's gonna get rough
When you give upOh no you didn't walk out on me
Oh no you didn't take it so lightly
Oh no you didn't just shut the door
I think my jaw just hit the floor.Oh no you didn't walk out on me
Oh no you didn't take it so lightly
Oh no you didn't just shut the door
I think my jaw just hit the floor.
