Ocean Spray

Manic Street Preachers

Me-totemo-utsukushi-i-desu-ne Totemo-utsukushi-i-me-wo-shitemasuIt's easy to see, it's easy to see To see only white, where color should be It's easy to feel, it's easy to feel But it's not good enough, even though it's realOh, please, stay awake And then we can drink some Ocean Spray Oh, please, stay awake And then we can drink some Ocean SprayIt's easy to breathe, it's easy to grieve To breathe only air, where life should be It's easy to laugh, it's easy to cry To cry so, so hard that it can't be deniedOh, please, stay awake And then we can drink some Ocean Spray Oh, please, stay awake And then we can drink some Ocean SprayOh, please, stay awake And then we can drink some Ocean Spray Oh, please, stay awake And then we can drink some Ocean Spray
