All Right

Amy Grant

Looking out to the hills, to the setting sun

I feel a cold wind bound to come

Another change, another end I cannot see

But your faithfulness to me is making it all right fall down on my knees, tell me that it's all right

You give me what I need

Years of knockin' on heaven's door

Have taught me this, if nothing more

That it's all right, what may come I've heard it said, 'When the river's running high

You get to higher ground or you die'

Well, muddy waves of pain washed over me

And it only made me seeIt's gonna be all right

I, I fall down on my knees

Tell me that it's all right

You give me what I needYears of knockin' on heaven's door

Have taught me this, if nothing more

That it's all right, what may comeWhen will I learn there're no guarantees?

What strengthens hope, my eyes have never seen

But it won't be long till the faith will be sight

And the heavens will sayIt's all right

(All right)

(All right)

(All right)All right, I fall down on my knees

Tell me that it's all right

You give me what I needYears of knockin', heaven's door

Have taught me this, if nothing more

And it's all right, whatever comesAll right, fall on my knees

Tell me that it's all right

You give me what I need

(After all these)

Years of knockin' on heaven's door

(Years of knockin' on heavens' door)(It's gonna be)

All right

(Ooh, yeah)

All rightI fall down on my knees, tell me that it's all right

'Cause you give me what I need

(After all these years of knockin' on heaven's door)

Years of knockin' on heaven's door(It's gonna be)

All right

Whatever comes, yes sir

All right
I fall down on my knees
All right
