All My Life

Athenaeum

You were right outside my window
Your skin still brown from yesterday
But I pretended not to notice
You just turn and walk awayAll my life I've been a little weird
Friends of mine they've always disappeared
And I'm still running from the things I've feared
To fade awayAlone
On my ownYou would always send good pictures
Your skin the perfect souvenir
But I pretended not to notice
You just turn and disappearAll my life I've been a little strange
Friends may come and go but I can't change
And you've got your so darlin' don't complain
Just fade awayAlone
On your ownI used to see you in the summertime
You always new just what to sayYou're not aloneAll my life I've been a little weird
Friends of mine they've always disappeared
And I'm still running from the things I've feared
To fade awayDon't fade away alone
