Sunlight

Diana Vickers

After the day goes,
And all the tears flow,
When there is no-one,
Nothing by your side.
Where do the dreams go,
When we're not sleeping,
Is there a world outside,
That's waiting just for us.
I wanna wake up with the sunlight in my eyes,
I wanna wake up with the sunlight in my eyes.
When all the stars fall,
Out of the night sky,
Fall like an angel,
Into these arms of mine.
Give me a song to sing,
And I'll give you everything,
I'll give everything I know,
I know.

I wanna wake up with the sunlight in my eyes,
I wanna wake up with the sunlight in my eyes,
After the clouds have gone,
When all the lights shine on,
I wanna wake up with the sunlight in my eyes.
With the sunlight.
If someone's looking out for me,
If someone's listening to me,
If someone's looking.
Give me a song to sing,
And I'll give you everything,
I'll give you everything I know,
I know.
I wanna wake up with the sunlight in my eyes,
I wanna wake up with the sunlight in my eyes,
Give me a song to sing,
And I'll give you everything,
I wanna wake up with the sunlight in my eyes,
With the sunlight in my eyes.
