Secret Identity

Twina

Left your secret identity by the kitchen sink
Poisoned all this composure running in too deep
But I just sing
I've got all that I am needing
I've got all the life I'm breathing
Everything will be alrightOO OO OOOOWhen you feel there's nothing left to say
When one more day turns into one more day
Well just sing
I've got all that I am needing
I've got all the life I'm breathing
Everything will be alrightOO OO OOOOAnd it feels like all the stars are stacked against you
And if feels like nothing could ever release you
Give it timeLeft your secret identity
