

All of Me

Angus & Julia Stone

Is there a cure for this pain
Maybe I should have something to eat
But food wont take this emptiness away
I'm hungry for you my love Well, I made it through another day
In my cold room
On scraps and pieces left behind
I survive on the memory of you All of me is all for you
You're all I see
All of me is all for you
You're all I need Is there a remedy for waiting
For loves victorious return
Is there a remedy for hating
Every second that I'm without you All of me is all for you
You're all I see
All of me is all for you
You're all I need All this life is all for love
Its the only road Ill choose
And every street and avenue
Only one will lead me back to you One love, one love, one love
One love, one love, one love
