Tear It Down

The Aston Shuffle

There are scars that I know you bare
But you hide them well
They're not always clear in the light
Oh baby, don't hideÂ I can feel all the fire in you
Though your eyes are cold
They still burn right through your disguise
And all of your lies, yeahI scaled the wall
That you built inside
And now I'm gonna tear it down
Tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down tonightI scaled the wall
That you built inside
And now I'm gonna tear it down
Tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down tonightThere are scars that I know you bare
But you hide them well
They're not always clear in the light
Oh baby, don't hide, noI can feel all the fire in you
Though your eyes are cold
They still burn right through your disguise
And all of your lies, yeahI scaled the wall
That you built inside
And now I'm gonna tear it down
Tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down tonightI scaled the wallTear it down, tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down, tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down, tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down tonightTear it down, tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down, tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down, tear it down
I'm gonna tear it down tonight
