Clueless

Breabach

Scared to look ahead, instead I fold my arms, waiting
The train's arriving with the goodies I'm entitled to
All this time, I never felt I got what I deserved
Oh, what a shame
Why me? Why me?
I never take a thing for granted
I'll never be a hypocrite
What would you know?
Fly, watch your fallen sunset
I can't remember when I ever heard you say
Thank you for everything you gave, I'm so grateful
Hang on to your fallen sunset
Don't you see I'm talking, can't you wait until I'm done?
Hold on a second, here's another one you haven't heard
You think [Incomprehensible] the world will look at me
I'm [Incomprehensible]
You're feelin' sorry for yourself once again
I never take a thing for granted
I'll never be a hypocrite
Can't stand to hear you
Always takin' things for granted

You're such a hypocrite
What would you know?
Fly, watch your fallen sunset
I can't remember when I ever heard you say
Thank you for everything you gave, I'm so grateful
Fly, watch your fallen sunset
Come away with me
I'll show you the way to happiness
Then is when you'll see
The peace that'll put your mind to rest
Come with me, come with me
Ease your bad memories
You made your choice
You're so  up
Go fly, watch your fallen sunset
I can't remember when I ever heard you say
Thank you for everything you gave, I'm so grateful

Hang on to your fallen sunset
Fly
