Imago

Borborygme

Soft pallet breaking
Lost in aisles of white
Corridors are shaking
And I can see the lights
Waiting for something
Waiting for someone
Please release me
I can barely breathe
I watch the ground beneath
No more the want to be
Waiting for something
Waiting for someone
Don't fall, we could have had it all
Another breath you're taking
Slow rise, your love is suicide
This heart is slowly breaking
