There's Only Me

Rob Dougan

You're all I want
All I need
You're all I've got
All I see
It won't be long
Till suddenly
You find he's gone
And you'll turn around and seeThere's only me
For whom there's silence in your heart
There's only me
Waiting patient to the last
You wait and see
One day your love will surely start
You'll turn around
You'll find when everyone departs there's only me
Only me, only meYou walk in the room
You take you seat
You don't turn around
You don't see me
I'll make him go
You'll find one day he'll disappear
You'll turn around
And find that not a soul is hereThere's only me
For whom there's silence in your heart
There's only me
Waiting patient to the last
You wait and see
One day your love will surely start
You'll turn around
You'll find when everyone departs there's only me
Only me, only me
Only me, only me
Only me, only me
Only me, only me
Only, only me
Only meThere's only me
There's only me
You wait and see
You wait and see

You'll turn around
You'll find when everyone departs
There's only me
