

Warpaint

Beach Slang

Make a muscle with your brain
You're not as broken as you are brave
All the things that fuck you up
Knock them out and then come back to us
Tonight could be the roughest of your life
I know you'll wake dying to survive
Don't be afraid to want to be alive
Splatter warpaint on your cheek
Bear your heart without apology
Hang your anger, cut it loose
Make this stick: I won't give up on you
Tonight could be the roughest of your life
I know you'll wake dying to survive
Don't be afraid to want to be alive
Knock the pills out of your teeth
The way they're kissing you
Gives me the creeps
Make a fist and ditch your doubts
I know you'll die some time
But it's not now
Tonight could be the roughest of your life
I know you'll wake dying to survive
Don't be afraid to want to be alive
