Bye, Bye, Bye

Jellyfish

So there it is
All the truth is on the table
Nothing to forgive
It's okay to start againThe wedding cake
Almost fades into a memory thrown
In Cupid's face
Love's just frosting anywayThey both think back too long ago
When thoughts of them both growing old
Had given them the gray hair they deservedSinging bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye
Well I've come to take you homeAnother wife
Neglected to the end
Lives her on prisoned life
Solitaire's not just a gameShe called his bluff
Even though the tokens
And gold watch were never enough
To tell the time and start againIt seems all of these tragedies
That last and last eternities
Have broken every bank and every boneSinging bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye
Well I've come to take you homeSinging bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye
Well I've come to take you homeThey both think back too long ago
When thoughts of them both growing old
Had given them the gray hair they deservedSinging bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye
Well I've come to take you homeSinging bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye
Well I've come to take you homeSinging bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, bye
Well I've come to take you home
