

Better Now

Fox Stevenson

I've been spending too much time talking to camera,
I've been doing this so long and I remember why I need a movement
I need a shakedown
I need a free-fall, Ohh
Cause I'm dying Yeah, I'm Barely alive, but I'll, give it a try,
I've been, living a lie, but I'm, better now
(x2) Well I know I've spent too much time just thinking about what I don't know
And maybe there's a better place for me that I could call home I need a movement,
I need a switch up, yeah
I need a pick-me-up, cause I've fallen We don't, have to go through these changes alone
We don't, no, no, no, no Spent my life, moving up and down, fighting fires all over town,
I do the time but time's running out, but I know one thing, I am better now Barely alive, but I'll, give it a try,
I've been, living a lie, but I'm, better now
Barely alive, but I'll, give it a try,
I've been, living a lie, but I'm better now Barely alive, but I'll, give it a try,
I've been, living a lie, but I'm, better now
(x2)
