Tying My Shoes

Caroline Smith & The Good Night Sleeps

You say that I'm never to keen to leave this placeYou say that you never wanted to hit me in the faceMore than right now ever before but can't you see that I'm only alone casting lines out to catches who can swallow my buzzics and pretend that they know what i know so you're going to town have to open my mouth and empty the contents onto the floor but I'm never supposed to as you take it out than I'm only several inches from the doorHurry hurry you say as I'm tying my shoes your hands nervous mess up as they were tying your shoes and you slipped up and have to start new well I would never say hurry up to you but I wont open my mouth or get mad about it because that's just something that I wouldn't do you've got to open your mouth as your heading to town
and empty the contents onto the floor but if I'm never supposed to as you would take it out than I'm only several inches from the door

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/