Somebody Still Loves You

Duncan James

Sitting here all alone dreaming
Thinking of the summer days so long ago
When the world was yours and mine
Before it turned right on it's side
And I remember how it felt to hold you
And what about the plans we made
When we were young
Even though we're worlds apart
Do you ever feel lost?
Like you'll never be found
Do you ever feel broken
Into pieces on the ground?
Do you ever feel scared like nobody cares?
Just tell me what you need and I'll be there
'Cause you know one thing in life is true
Somebody still loves you
Standing here making tracks without you
I wonder if our paths will ever meet again
I still think of you that way
You're in my hearts always
Do you ever feel lost?
Like you'll never be found
Do you ever feel broken
Into pieces on the ground?
Do you ever feel scared like nobody cares
Just tell me what you need and I'll be there
'Cause you know one thing in life is true
Somebody still loves you
