Feel Somethin'

Carly Pearce

I been pushin' every button on an elevator that's goin' down
I been flyin' every flag, shootin' every gun on this battle ground
I been a wreck on the side of the road, hopin' you might look at me
I don't know where you stand,
'cause you're too afraid to show anything
WellMake me laugh
Make me cry
Make me wish we never met
Make me feel somethin'
And if it hurts
It's alright
At least I know that we're not dead
Make me feel somethin'
You're the vodka I drink every night, but I don't ever get drunk You're the knife turnin' in my heart, but I'm way too numb
When did you stop tryin', when did I become so comatose
If love's a drug, I wish that I could overdose
WellMake me laugh
Make me cry
Make me wish we never met
Make me feel somethin'
And if it hurts
It's alright
At least I know that we're not dead
Make me feel somethin'I wanna feel you, I wanna feel you
Make me feel somethin'
Sleep walkin' through another day where everything feels so polite We don't pay attention to the bed we're in and we don't fight
And all that's different is so indifferent lately
And if you love me enough, love me enough to hate me, andMake me laugh
Make me cry
Make me wish we never met
Make me feel somethin'
And if it hurts
It's alright
At least I know that we're not dead
Make me feel somethin'Make me laugh
Make me cry

Make me wish we never met
Make me feel somethin'
And if it hurts
It's alright
At least I know that we're not dead
Make me feel somethin'I wanna feel you, I wanna feel you
Make me feel somethin'
