

Kings of Suburbia

Tokio Hotel

We are young
With open eyes
Blinded by
The city lights
Lose control
To feel alive
Just another day
In paradiseDiamond sky
Diamond sky
You and I
You and IWe are the Kings and Queens of suburbia
Somewhere in time, we don't know where we are
Come on
We are who we are
Come on
Come onHave you heard
The silent scream
Boys and girls
Born to be free
Love is our gasoline
Livin' on this endless dreamDiamond sky
Diamond sky
You and I
You and IWe are the Kings and Queens of suburbia
Somewhere in time, we don't know where we are
Come on
We are who we are
Come on
Come onWe are the Kings and Queens of suburbia
Somewhere in time, we don't know where we are
Come on
We are who we are
We are who we areGod grant me the serenity
To accept the things I cannot change
Courage to change the things I can
And wisdom to know the differenceWe are the Kings and Queens of suburbia
Somewhere in time, we don't know where we areWe are the Kings and Queens of suburbia
Somewhere in time, we don't know where we are
Come on

We are who we are
We are who we areDiamond sky
Diamond sky
You and I
You and IDiamond sky
Diamond sky
You and I
You and IJoin me under diamond skies
Everything will be alrightJoin me under diamond skies
Everything will be alrightJoin me under diamond skies
Everything will be alright
