

Catholic High School (RECOMMENDED)

Bonzie

I dont trust the homeless man walking in the mall
And I dont trust the priest at the altarI dont trust the teacher at the front of the class
And I dont trust the burnout in the backI dont trust blacks
And I dont trust whitesI trust Christians and Atheists the sameI dont trust the government but I dont trust not having oneYou say you dont believe in love but I trust that you doI wont go to Catholic High School
And you cant make me
Ill lock myself in my room throw away the key
I wont go and you cant make meI dont trust religion cause it doesnt prove me wrong
And it will never prove me rightI dont trust little babies sleeping in the night Cause one day theyll wake up and turn out just like usI dont trust doctors theyre just people A piece of paper means nothing to meEat the crust Leave the bread for the birds and just watch your seasons blurI wont go to Catholic High School
And you cant make me
Ill kick and scream, scream and shout Ill go in just to get kicked out
No, I wont go and you cant make meNo, I wont go to that place
I dont think its right,
I wont be watched as I talk to GodAnd graded on how I prayIs my technique okay?I wont go to Catholic High School
And you cant make me
Ill lock myself in my room
throw away the key, no
I wont go and you cant make me
I wont go and you cant make me
I wont go and you cant make me

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>