

Wrecking Ball

Frankmusik

Baby you let me down
I'm closing the door
I can't bear to see
Your sweet eyes anymore
Every second that I stay
I'm sinking further in
To your clever little games
And the heartache that they bring
Don't you know by now
When I scream out loud
That I'm done with you
And the things you do
I can't run or hide
From your love or lies
Can I win a war
When you're changing sides
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
It's like
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it, tear it
Picking up parts of me
Scattered on the floor
Reckless love is strong
I wish my soul was more
Terrified and scared to death
I'm searching for a way
To keep you more in check
Hear what I gotta say
Don't you know by now
When I scream out loud
That I'm through with you
And the things you do
I can't run or hide
From your love or lies

Can I win a war
When you're changing sides
Every time you tear me down down
 Tear me down down
 With your wrecking ball heart
 Baby tear it apart
 It's like
 Every time you tear me down down
 Tear me down down
 With your wrecking ball heart

Baby now I'm taking cover
You're my destructive lover
 Baby you are like no other
 Wrecking all of us
 Baby now I'm taking cover
 You're wrecking all of us
 With a wrecking ball
Do you really want to wreck us all
 With a wrecking ball
 Wreck it all
Every time you tear me down down
 Tear me down down
 With your wrecking ball heart
 Baby tear it apart
 It's like
Every time you tear me down down
 Tear me down down
 With your wrecking ball heart
 Baby tear it
Every time you tear me down down
 Tear me down down
 With your wrecking ball heart
 Baby tear it apart
 It's like
Every time you tear me down down
 Tear me down down

Baby tear it, tear it
That I'm done with you
I can't run or hide
From your love or lies
Can I win a war
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
It's like
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
