Hold You High

By the Tree

I drank from this cup till it watered down my soul
I need You, so I'll thirst no more
I started down this path such a long, long time ago
I need to find my way homeI want to be the one that holds You high
I want to be the one that gives You glory only
I want to be the one that holds You high
I want to be the one that brings You praiseI'm the king of my desires, I've tried them all a thousand times
I have got to choose between this world and You
It's got a grip, I must admit, I can't explain this emptiness
I hurt without You by my sideI've cried to You in my darkest hour
And You brought my soul up from the graveI want to be the one that holds You high
I want to be the one that gives You glory only
I want to be the one that holds You high
I want to be the one that brings You praiseI want to be the one that holds You high
I want to be the one that gives You glory only
I want to be the one that holds You high
I want to be the one that brings You praise
