Burn It Down

Whitney Duncan

Better get the matches
Better get some gasoline
I'm tearin' up the pictures
In our book of memoriesAnd gather 'em up
Into a pile on the floor
We don't need them anymoreThe floor in this house
Has been soaked through with tears
But that won't matter
When the fire starts spreading hereIt won't be long
Till it all goes up in smoke
Till the sparks grab a holdLet it all burn, bring it all down
Watch it all go up in flames
Let it give out, let it cave in
Let it bring down everythingLet it rise up till this love
Is nothing more than
Ashes on the ground
Oh, burn it downI'm tossin' in the laughter
And the smiles we knew before
I'm tossin' in the secrets
That you carin' through our doorAnd all those nights
That you looked me in the eye
And told me that you loved me
In our bed of liesLet it all burn, bring it all down
Watch it all go up in flames
Let it give out, let it cave in
Let it bring down everythingLet it rise up till this love
Is nothing more than
Ashes on the ground
Oh, burn it downYou think you know what love can be
'Til you find you don't know anything
You just pour out your heart so there's nothing left to say
Then you strike that match and you walk awayLet it rise up till this love
Is nothing more than
Ashes on the groundLet it all burn, bring it all down
Watch it all go up in flames
Let it give out, let it cave in
Let it bring down everythingLet it rise up 'til this love
Is nothing more than
Ashes on the ground

Oh, burn it down, oh, burn it down
Hmm, burn it down, hmm, burn it down
