

Mystery of the Invisible

VERIDIA

I can feel, but I can't touch
The atmosphere of your love
Surrounded by something I know is there
For reasons that I can't see
What exists is far beyond me
But I will have faith in the unseen 'Cause I've heard the sound of the ancient hymns
I've felt the chills of the cool, cool wind
I've tasted the sweet before
Been lost in the beautiful
The powerful mystery of the invisible We're all living an epic tale
Restoring of those who fell
A breathing cathedral of your heart
And it draws me with every breath
Puts path beneath my step
And I'm haunted by how I'm comfortable 'Cause I've heard the sound of the ancient hymns
I've felt the chills of the cool, cool wind
I've tasted the sweet before
Been lost in the beautiful
The powerful mystery of the invisible Have faith, have faith, have faith, my dear
Have faith, have faith, have faith, my dear I've heard the sound of the ancient hymns
I've felt the chills of the cool, cool wind
I've tasted the sweet before
Been lost in the beautiful
The powerful mystery of the invisible
The powerful mystery of the invisible
