

Candour and Lies

Ensiferum

I, I have sailed
All alone
So many times
The seven seas of tears
I can still hear the waves.Cold frigid wind
On my sails
Always takes me back
To distant memories
Home, the last farewell.Waves of time
candour and lies
for what I left behind,
I know the price was high.No tears to cry
No words to make it right
But now I know that home is Where my heart desires.(instrumental)I, I was lost
No star
No shore to call my own
But I didn't know
I had it all.On the fields of victories
And defeats
A drifter's life is both longing and dreams
then reality.(instrumental)Wasted time,
Candour and lies,
For what I left behind,
I know the price was high. (2x)No tears to cry,
No words to make it right,
But now I know that home is Where my heart desires.
