Prisoners of War (Post-Hardcore.COM)

Crown the Empire

Am I the prisoner?
I am a ghost, but if only you remember
To say your prayers of promises for something better.
My hands are tied
Stuck in this room forever
I scream but only echos care to answer
We raise our world to find our hope
We made a world we lost our way back home
But we fight through the storm
Or stay forever warm
The prisoners of war
Am I the prisoner?
I sold my soul
And traded my wings for glory
When i close my eyes i hear the angels sing to me
(I hear the angels sing to me)
We raise our world to find our hope
We made a world we lost our way back home
But we fight through the storm
Or stay forever warm
The prisoners of war
Am i the prisoner?
We live to exist
But are we alive?
We can't run away
How will we survive?
I'm losing my brain
I can't wait to die
There's no more words for what I've done!
I find myself behind the sun!
There's no more words for what I've done!
I find myself behind the sun!
We have to die
To feel like were alive
we made a world
We lost our way back home
We made a world
We lost our way back home
Will we fight

Through the storm
Or stay forever warm
The prisoners of war
Am I the prisoner?!
I am a ghost but only a few remember
I am a ghost but only a few remember
Will you remember me?!
