

Listen Up

Brandon Heath

Intro:

(Listen up. listen up) no talking.
(Listen up, listen up) I'm listening up.
(Listen up, listen up) no speaking.
(Listen up, listen up)

Why are you crying?
Did I say something wrong?
Wern't we just talking?
Tell me what's going on.
'Cuz I'm pretty sure my intentions
Were nothing more than conversation
Maybe you just needed someone to listen to your heart.

Chorus:

Maybe I spoke too soon
Maybe I said too much
Now that my face is blue i think it's time to listen up
I've already said enough

(Listen up, listen up)
(Listen up, listen up)

Sometimes I do this
Thing is I'm so afraid
When it gets quiet
What you might have to say
'Cuz I'm guilty of all the combinsation
I'm lost in my own translation
I apoligize, I know I
Should listen to your heart

(Chorus)

There isn't anything that I could say
Not a word to fet in the way of you
Of you, I am listening

Maybe you spoke too soon
Maybe you said too much

Now that my face is blue
I think it's time to listen up(x2)

I think it's time to listen up
I've already said enough.
