Houses

The Fire Theft

Call the moment good
Dont hurry if you can
See all the houses youd build thereThe sun warms my mind
The moon cools my toes
All of these memories hold meaningNever mind the world
When Im laying by the pool
Oh no, Im feeling lazy
And I need to seek the worldWondering in the night
If my car can still drive
Holidays never been longerThe sun warms my mind
The moon cools my toes
All of these memories lose meaningNever mind the world
When you think it's right in front of you
I know they think I'm crazy
And believe I need a girlAnother sleepless night
The idea of a perfect life
How many more minds can one house holdThe sun warms my mind
The moon cools my toes
Holidays never been longerNever mind the worlds
When youre laying by the pool
I thought that I was crazy
All along it was just a girl
