

Falling Over

Disciple

Could it be that I am just a product
Of my own selfishness?
Could it be that I am just a model
That no one should follow? Couldn't take your word as it was given
Predestined to wander
So Im here to reflect and to ponder
Where I've gone, I miss you Replace this weight I feel and break this heart until
I feel you breathin', Im falling over you again
Hearin' this voice again and all across my skin
I feel you breathin', Im falling over you again
Falling over you again My reasons are gone, you knew all along
That I would be falling over you again
Without you it felt wrong and it wouldn't be long
Till I would be falling over you again Can I go back to when it was just us?
I could care less what life brought us
I never will understand why I left this
When I felt more, I trusted you Replace this weight I feel and break this heart until
I feel you breathin', Im falling over you again
Hearin' this voice again and all across my skin
I feel you breathin', Im falling over you again
Falling over you again My reasons are gone, you knew all along
That I would be falling over you again
Without you it felt wrong and it wouldn't be long
Till I would be falling over you again Falling, Im falling over you, yeah I knew that this was wrong
But I needed to be on my own
And now its been so long
Since my freedom is me, bound to you Falling over you again
My reasons are gone, you knew all along
That I would be falling over you again
Without you it felt wrong and it wouldn't be long
Till I would be falling over Wouldn't be long, you knew all along
Falling over you again, falling over you again
