

Underwater

Boyz II Men

Don't you know my lungs are filled with words?
And every single is about your name, oh
And every time I give you a call
It all pours down like a waterfall

It's my fault for thinking that I
Can be the one to make you change
Cause you do what you want to
And never listen to me anyway
And every time that you roll your eyes

I feel like I'm
Talking underwater
Why can't you hear I love ya?
Don't think I can take no more
Words are wasted on you, baby
Talking underwater
Why can't you hear I love ya?
You don't care we're turning bad
Talking underwater

I was hoping my love could be the cure
Oh, what a looking at your face, I'm not too sure
Could it be that you mean more than me
Then I would ever be the all, oh

It's my fault for thinking that I
Can be the one to make you change
Cause you do what you want to
And never listen to me anyway
And every time that you roll your eyes

I feel like I'm
Talking underwater
Why can't you hear I love ya?
Don't think I can take no more
Words are wasted on you, baby
Talking underwater
Why can't you hear I love ya?
You don't care we're turning bad

Talking underwater

Words are wasted on you baby, oh
Words are wasted on you baby, oh
Words are wasted on you baby
Words are wasted on you baby, oh

Every time Iâ€™m talking to you
It almost seems youâ€™re not even listening to me
I donâ€™t understand what that is, just selfish, damn

I feel like Iâ€™m
Talking underwater
Why canâ€™t you hear I love ya?
Donâ€™t think I can take no more
Words are wasted on you, baby
Talking underwater
Why canâ€™t you hear I love ya?
You donâ€™t care weâ€™re turning bad, oh
Talking underwater
Why canâ€™t you hear I love ya?
Donâ€™t think I can take no more
Words are wasted on you, baby
Talking underwater
Why canâ€™t you hear I love ya?
You donâ€™t care weâ€™re turning bad
Talking underwater

Words are wasted on you, baby, oh
Talking underwater
Words are wasted on you, baby, oh
Talking underwater
Words are wasted on you, baby
Why canâ€™t you hear I love ya?
Words are wasted on you, baby
Talking underwater

Every time Iâ€™m talking to you
It almost seems youâ€™re not even listening to
