

She Wanna Know

Joe Budden

I'm 'bout to say some shit to you
I might need you to answer back topBad enough that the mic give me feedback
I ain't gotta come home and see that
Let me talk to you for a minuteI wanna know
I wanna know
I believe I know
You'll be my baby, babyLet me talk to 'emFirst off, all the questionin', I thought we was above that
We got some time and act like you wish to jerk that
C'mon don't tell me that we already endin'
And fuck I need to cheat on you for I'm already winnin'
It's like, "I wanna know", if I gotta exit them tensions
Callin' her names, tryin' to make her feel like less of a woman
But nah, picture I shady, won't lie and say I don't lie
Once or twice maybe, forever you my lady myYou gorgeous, but it's more than just your hips that talk
It's, [Incomprehensible] but want more
It's how we laugh, you know shall we not
My better half slash your eyes, the vibe we got
It's like, "I wanna know", if I'm real in a deal and then
She wanna know if I feel how she feelin'
And real when I'm dealin', please believe boo
Won't deceive you, it's not just a want, I need youI wanna know if you'll always be my baby
You my girl, my wiz, my life
I need to know he'll always be me baby
You my heart, my all, my wife
I wanna know if you'll always be my baby
You my girl, my wiz, my lifeBad enough that the mic give me feedback
And I ain't gotta come home and see thatIt's like, "I wanna know", if I'm at some other broad's
Laughin' in bed, she got it all mapped in her head
Ma, I'm all 'bout, you and me
But you slowly losin' me when you keep accusin' me
I know why you be askin' where I came from
Nothin' wrong with arguin' but we havin' the same ones
Either you gon' ride out or you gon' spoil it
Either you gon' take a shit or get up off of the toiletIt's like, I wanna know, if I be lyin' to her
Or if I think these other birds finer than her, so
So when your man's on the road, he don't see you
I don't want the sex to be the only thing that keeps you
I give you my all, just holla at me if you want more
You tired of hearin' 'bout me talkin' 'bout a jump off

You my girl, my wiz, my life
Ma we can't go wrong ma, listen to the horns maI wanna know if you'll always be my baby
You my girl, my wiz, my life
I need to know he'll always be me baby
You my heart, my all, my wife
I wanna know if you'll always be my baby
You my girl, my wiz, my lifeBad enough that the mic give me feedback
And I ain't gotta come home and see thatIt's like, I wanna know, if my career catches fire
Out of all the woman in the world, why her?
Hold up now you gettin' mad at yourself
Just take a look in the mirror, be proud of yourself
How many times I gotta tell ya, boo you all that I got
How many times I gotta tell ya, be secure in your spot
I understand so I can't knock it, but I'm your man, stop it
Checkin' my 2 way, and goin' through my pants pocketsIt's no need, you my girl, my wiz, my life
Look ma, you my heart, my all, my wife, and you pissed
'Cause you know other chicks would love to smash your man
I tell 'em I'm alright, I take pride in that I'm your man
Your friends keep tellin', you ain't shit
I done been through this before baby, same shit
Long as we know what we got, we can carry on boo
We can't go wrong ma, listen to the horns, maI wanna know if you'll always be my baby
You my girl, my wiz, my life
I need to know he'll always be my baby
You my heart, my all, my wife
I wanna know if you'll always be my baby
You my girl, my wiz, my lifeBad enough that the mic give me feedback
And I ain't gotta come home and see thatMy girl, your wiz, your life
Your heart, your soul, your wife
I will be everything to you, oh baby
I wanna know, if you'll always be my baby
