Willie Burke Sherwood

Killer Mike

No matter how good a woman is, she still can't really teach him to be no man or daddy

Used to walk around with a head full of naps

Chubby young kid with a head full of raps

Doing what he can, just trying to adapt

Jumped to the block off of grandma's lap

Jumped to the block, so did every emcee

But gotta tell the truth, yeah, the block wasn't me

Lookin' for adventure, but the block was not

The block was real, Woo got killed

Half a year later, Big Spank got killed

And I got robbed, and Ronnie got shot

And I bought my first tape by 2Pac

And I got hard, cause I was smart

I knew that the weak and the meek couldn't make it in the street

Had to assert yourself to survive

So I convinced myself it was better for me

To be Jack in the Lord of the Flies

It's a book I read, books I read

Cause I'm addicted to literature

As a young boy rollin' 'round with the clique

Cause of that I was insecure

I was insecure cause I realized

Ain't no room for the civilized

When the wild men rumble in the jungle

And that's why Simon and Piggy died

Ralph survives, but he lives changed

Nothin's the same, shit'll drive a man out his brain

Drive a young man insane

My cousin Jimmy had a breakdown he ain't never been the same

And he never will be again

If I could fix his brain

Take back the crack in his mind

Give it all back, you can have the racks and fame

I'd give it all back in exchange

This is for the dads and the grandads

And the little homies that ain't never had dads

This is for the uncles and the OGs

And the lil homies, and the YGs

This is for the men I look up to

And all the struggles that the men had to go through For every man that's ever had to man up If that's you, let me see you put your hands up I lost my youth, chasin' my youth Made me a youth in the back of a coupe Teenage love, like Slick Rick said I hit her with my Dougie and I had a gold tooth Fur Kangol, Filas too She was light-skinned red gold tooth But of course it didn't last cause I had to go to college And she was still in high school Damn, I'm a dad, this is bad This ain't good, my baby's in the hood And I'm walkin' 'round the black ivy league campus Like I wish you house niggas would So I go get a job, UPS Where they treat you like BS and You all know how the story goes Drop out of college and sell 'ses I figured I'd invest in studio time Drop rhymes, have success But, mostly I got fronted on, stunted on Nigga dealt with some stress I'll take that two, take that three Cause my momma got to see me on TV And my grandmomma got to get her Grammy And my grandaddy got to see his boy eat See his boy grow, I wish I never had that show I wish you never had to go Wish you could meet my wife, wish you could see my life But you had to see the light Wish I had you one more day Wish I had tomorrow that's your birthday We can sip gin, straight get fade We can ride old schools through the trey
