I Salute You Christopher

IAMX

I salute you, Christopher
I salute your life
How you play the diceYour words will live in us
Timelessly insane
Explosive, fresh, and wiseSome will just forget
Some will close their eyes
Some will turn the tideI salute you, Christopher Whiskey raised and downed
You risked, and you took the crownConsole yourselves
That a scientific death is better than a fairytale
Of the eternal lifeControl yourselves
'cause the Man in the Sky is a tyrant and a lonely psychopath
Dreamed up to steal your mindsA horseman on a track
A brilliant gentle wreck
With a brittle mouth the priceNo submit, no compromise
Saint Christopher, all the truths
And the destroyer of soulstrings and threatsThey will learn to see in time
They will think before they refuse
The civilization roadI salute you, Christopher
I declare you as our King
Or Queen, depending on your mood
