

How to Be So Real

Jim Noir

When you're making magic
Go always in the flow
Get it right and you will feel
How to be so real If you have enough to spend
You won't have to lend
Purchase things that make it feel
How to be so real You will never pay your vow
You will never pay your vow
You will never pay your vow
You will never pay your vow When you're making magic
Go always in the flow
Get it right and you will feel
How to be so real If you have enough to spend
You won't have to lend
Purchase things that make it feel
How to be so real You will never pay your vow
You will never pay your vow
You will never pay your vow
You will never pay your vow
