Love To Keep You Warm

Whitesnake

If you want love, you gotta be cool
And if you deny it, baby, you're a fool
I'm tellin' you now
Don't you hide it away
Because you need love to keep you warm
Both night and day
I could come home late at night
And after some lovin' baby
It would be alright
I've given up tryin', lyin' my way
Because you need love to keep you warm
Both night and day
You gotta have love to keep you warm
Both night and day, yeah
I said, baby, if you need my love
You better come home with me
Maybe if you want my love
You know, you got it easily
So the sun goes down
And the night is cold
You know
I won't be far away
Because you need love to keep you warm
Both night and day
You gotta have love to keep you warm
Both night and day
You gotta have love

If you need schoolin' baby, I'll be around
I'm ready for foolin'
But mama don't hang around
And every mornin', I know, you will say, yeah
You gotta have love to keep you warm
Both night and day
You gotta have love to keep you warm
Both night and day
I said, baby, if you need my love
You better come home with me
Maybe if you want my love

You know, you got it easily
But when the sun goes down
And the night is cold
You know
I won't be far away
Because you need love to keep you warm
Both night and day
You gotta have love to keep you warm
Both night and day
I ain't lyin'
You gotta have love to keep you warm
Both night and day
I said, you need love to keep you warm
Both night and day, yeah
Oh yeah
