

Bridge Of Destiny

Arch Enemy

Standing at the bridge of destiny
So long since I tasted fear
Lurking in the darkest holes
Awaiting my mind's weakest moment
Old words from an old world
Against the laws of nature
They say the truth is overrated
Wall of anger corrupt my thought
Standing at the bridge of destiny
Show me a sign
On the verge of losing my sanity
Free my soul
My inner demons torture me
Flapping their wings in my face
Damn you! You twisted illusion
I am no longer afraid
See through their liquid souls
Evil eyes that will hypnotize
You can no longer hurt me
I am my own worst enemy
Standing at the bridge of destiny
Show me a sign
On the verge of losing my sanity
Free my soul
Unleash the trapped souls of the dead
Voices long forgotten
Guardians of the lost faith
Destined for glory
Watch them all turn into sand
And the wind blow them away
Wisdom pours into my soul
Endlessly
Standing at the bridge of destiny
Show me a sign
On the verge of losing my sanity
Free my soul
Yea
