

Emerald Eyes

Sirens Sister

You're a precious pearl
In a fragile shell
With a rose colored skin
And the roses smell Your long golden hair
Reflecting the light
Your emerald eyes
Twinkle like stars at night Your smile shines brighter than the sun
Your smile shines brighter than the sun You are my queen
Choose who is worthy of you
You are my queen
Your warm heart's shining through
You are my queen
I forgive and forget whatever you do Your body divine
From me you don't hide
The flame of desire
That is burning inside Your ivory hands
Opened me the gate
To the meaning of life
Where love conquers hate Your smile shines brighter than the sun
Your smile shines brighter than the sun You are my queen
Choose who is worthy of you
You are my queen
Your warm heart's shining through
You are my queen
I forgive and forget whatever you do Your smile shines brighter than the sun
Your smile shines brighter than the sun You are my queen
Choose who is worthy of you
You are my queen
Your warm heart's shining through
You are my queen You are my queen
Choose who is worthy of you
You are my queen
Your warm heart's shining through
You are my queen You're a precious pearl
