

A Box Can't Hold a Love Song

Late to Bloom

"A Box Can't Hold A Love Song"

-Say you've got a new love now your alright girl
Say your never gonna look behind you
So you box up all your pictures,letters,phone numbers
And all that might remind you
So you pack it up & you put it up & dont bring it up & maybe it wont find you
-Say you've got a new smile that you don't cry girl
Say that sorrows never gonna drown you
Cause you've boxed up all your pictures,letters,phone numbers
And all that might have bound you
So if you pack it up & you put it up & never bring it up
Then maybe it wont down you

(But a box can't hold a love song
So how you gonna fight the urge to wanna sing along)

* Pictures,numbers,letters are sure fire dont forgetters
Till you put them out of sight out of mind
But when melody's a memory girl your gonna hear it sometimes
And you never know where you'll be
Or who the words are gonna bring back or from what part of your life
And you never see them coming the tears running from humming a line
Cause a box can't hold a love song to hide

-Say you've got a new love are you alright girl?
Said your gonna leave it all behind you
And though you boxed up all your pictures,letters,phone numbers
And all that might remind you
Of when you learned to love when you learned to touch
And that it all broke up & still it comes to find you
-Say you've got a new smile that you wont cry girl
Or let the water under bridges drown you
And though you boxed up all your pictures,letters,phone numbers
It came in the air around you
Of when you learned to love when you learned to touch
And that it all broke up is in the sound around you
