Welcome to Your Life

Sam Shrieve

Thereâ€™s a place in San Antonio
I confess to know
Because of you
And though Iâ€™ve been there twenty times or so
Every time I know
Iâ€™m there for you
Hereâ€™s to bouncing off the moon
And counting stars inside your room
And singing songs about the gloom
On the outside on the outside
Wondering why youâ€™ve never been there
Wondering why youâ€™ll never go

Welcome to your life
I hope itâ€™s what you wanted
I must say goodbye
I know youâ€™re disappointed
I want you to know
Iâ€™ll be back before you know it
I must leave this show

Thinking back to San Antone
A place that we have known
A time or two
And even though this world keeps turning
I keep learning
Itâ€™s all for you
Hereâ€™s to bouncing off the moon
And counting stars inside your room
And singing songs about the gloom
On the outside on the outside
Wondering why youâ€™ve never been there
Wondering why youâ€™ll never go

Welcome to your life
I hope itâ€™s what you wanted
I must say goodbye
I know youâ€™re disappointed
I want you to know

Iâ€™ll be back before you know it
I must leave this show
