The High Llamas

Greet the fabric pattern chain
Seen the time and time again
Pick it up where others fall
Rush to replicate it allThey return in silver suits
Sparky helmets, silver boots
Sparky helmetsWhen you're restless, when you're bored
Play the first card that you callThis machine sounds like a song
Touch the pedal, sing along
Swing a left to check the bail
Trace the fabric to the trailRun the cards unto the bell
Tore the stitches, wear the fur
Run the cards inWhen you're restless, when you're bored
Play the first card that you call
