Alarmed

Imaginary Future

in the hurry of the past i forgot to make it last simple choices made too fast im alarmed and i cant _____ _____ didnt count? crashing onto this island weve become words for fight and words for fun theyve all melted into one on the tip of every tongue like a _____ for the sun im alarmed and i _____ crashing onto this island weve become allright now, dont decide about that now oh how can you blame the only one every stay, every stay, every stay around and you would never say never say all the harms been done and you were also gone oh so long so long did you make it or _____ so wrong did you wait oh so long, so long did you take it all on so long
