Taken Aback

The Rocket Summer

It?s been two whole years
Since you and I shared fears
2:30 am, talkin' till sleep inside that diner
And now in your eyes I can't find you
Sorry, that I'm taken aback
But how I am you never ask
And I don't need such sympathy
But a care would be so woah, woah
Nice to have once in a while
You mean more to me than I could ever tell
So sorry that I'm taken aback
But I just can't help it
Small tale be just right, holdin' onto what we have inside
But now it's never there so should I admit
Do I believe that your [Incomprehensible] the culprit
?Coz now in your eyes I can't find you
Sorry, that I'm taken aback
But how I am you never ask
And I don't need such sympathy

But a care would be so woah, woah
Nice to have once in a while
You mean more to me than I could ever tell
So sorry that I'm taken aback
But I just can't help it
Someday this will go away
And everythin' I am will just be and stay
And I hope then you will understand
It's not everythin' I am my dear don't regret
So sorry that I'm taken aback
But how I am you never ask
And I don't need such sympathy
But a care would be so woah, woah
Nice to have once in a while
You mean more to me than I could ever tell
So sorry that I'm taken aback
But I just can't help it
